

WELA congratulates Maths relay winners

The Women in Engineering Leadership Association (WELA) congratulated the winning team of the Mathematics Relay held recently during the National Science Week. The group of female learners, who attend Pearson High School, were given information relating to WELA's Leadership Development Programme as well as information relating to the School of Engineering at NMMU. One of WELA's aims is to establish Engineering as a desirable career aspiration for young women.

Left to right: Tiyani Ndlovu, Hayley Erickson, Julia Booth-Jones, Tara du Preez, Nicole Truter, Amber Collins (Absent Emma Finestone)